

R&D Chemist

Required Experience:

- B.Sc. or M.Sc. in Chemistry or related fields required
- Minimum 3 year working experience in pigment dispersion or related industries
- Hands-on experience in formulating and testing colour pigment dispersion
- Knowledge of colour pigments, colour pigment dispersion processes, and process equipment from lab scale to production
- Laboratory management skills

Required Skills:

- Work with cross-disciplinary teams to develop new manufacturing technology for different grade of pigments
- Must be outwardly focused to capture and apply new technology developments
- Identify, explore and prove feasibility of novel product chemistries
- Develop and evaluate colour pigment dispersions for new products or for improvement of the current products
- Work with Quality and Manufacturing to address quality concerns or processing issues
- Work with process engineers to scale up new products
- Excellent communication, organization and presentation skills
- Proficient with Microsoft Office
- Strong trouble shooter/problem solver
- Manage and train junior chemists
- Highly motivated and a self-starter

To apply kindly mail your resume to contact@praharit.com