

Production Chemist

Job Summary

- To carry out production activities as per production planning along with complete supervision in all manufacturing and packing process.
- To plan manpower for their shift and do proper work distribution along with proper supervision.
- To allocate utilities for meeting production schedules and keeping constant check on all utilities to make sure they are functioning well.
- To co-ordinate with Ware House department regarding requirement of raw material to achieve in-time production.
- To co-ordinate with QC Department regarding analysis for approval or rejection of in-process samples, intermediate products and finished products to achieve in-time production target and maintaining quality standards.
- To co-ordinate with QA Department for ensuring implementation of GMP & ISO requirement and ensure all quality managements are followed as per written & approved procedure in production department which complies GMP & ISO systems.
- To maintain documents like BMR, Log books, Calibration records etc. for meeting GMP, ISO efficient operation.
- To maintain good housekeeping of production area, process equipment, Utility Area, Utility equipment and factory premises.

Education & Experience:

- B.Sc. /M.Sc. in Chemistry OR B.Tech / M.Tech in chemical engineering with 1-2 years of experience in production of colorants or pigments required

To apply kindly mail your resume to contact@praharit.com